Student from St. John the Baptist D.H.S. Recognized as Leader

WEST ISLIP, NY – Dan Sullivan, a West Islip resident and senior from St. John the Baptist Diocesan High School, has been recognized by two outstanding organizations. He was given the Boys' State Award from American Legion Post 94 in Babylon, and he received the Eagle Scout Award from the Boy Scouts of America.

The American Legion Boys' State Program has recognized Dan for his qualities of leadership, character, scholarship, loyalty and service to his school. Dan will participate in a mock government program at SUNY Morrisville State College for two weeks this summer. This Leadership Action Program is a practical government course designed to develop a working knowledge of the structure of government.

The National Eagle Scout Association was created with the express purpose of bringing together Eagle Scouts of all ages so that they may be of greater service to themselves, their local councils, and their communities, thereby conserving and developing the human resources potential represented by those who hold Scouting's highest rank.

“Having Dan recognized by both of these organizations shows the strength of his character, and his leadership abilities. We are proud to have a student of his caliber at our school and are confident that his participation in the summer program will only enhance his skills and capabilities,” said Nan Doherty, Principal.
